PART III – NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Volt Information Sciences, Inc. (the "Company") is assessing whether certain previously recognized revenues and related costs should have been recorded in later periods. The timing of such recognition depends on the possible applicability of two technical accounting pronouncements – AICPA Statements of Position 81-1 and 97-2 – relating to certain of the Company's customer contracts. As the Company's review is not yet complete, the Company has been delayed in filing its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the third quarter ended August 2, 2009. The Company is working diligently to complete its review of the contracts in question, but cannot at this time predict when this process will be complete.

If answer is no, identify report(s) Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of results cannot be made.

As noted above in Part III of this Form 12b-25, the Company has not completed its review of certain customer contracts. Therefore, because the timing of revenue recognition that may result from this review is not currently determinable, it is not possible for the Company to provide a reasonable estimate of the changes in the results of operation from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year.
